WILL SWANSON WITHDRAW

Rumor Has it that Judge William Hodges Mann Can Have Nomination for Governorship if He Desires It.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau,

No. 1411 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., June 29th. that the State Committee did not at the meeting in Richmond on the 25th instant. The committee, by a vote of 12 to 12, decided to recognize the straightouts, headed by Mr. George W. Jones, of Berkley. The decision was a great setback to the Fusionists, but they would have taken their defeat in good part. I am told by one of them, had there been a full attendance of the committee. The Fusionist alluded to claimed to-day that only about afteen members of the committee were present in person, the remainder being represented by proxies. He made the remarkable assertion that Mr. Lynch Montague, who held a proxy and was present at the meeting, would have voted for the recognition of the Fusionists, but not expecting a vote so soon, had left the committee-room a few minutes before. Governor Montague, Mr. Montague's brother, was supported in the gubernatorial contest by the Straightouts, while the Fusionists were solidly for Mr. Swanson or Captain R. C. Marshall.

The Fusionists at the election this fall propose to utterly disregard the Straightouts. They will take no part in the primary for the nomination of candidates for the General Assembly, but will put up their own candidates, selected by primary, or otherwise, and will almost nertainly elect him. A fight will then be made before the Democratic caucus to have the Fusionist candidates recognized as regular. All of which is interesting as showing that the Norfolk county factional fight is far from set-luck.

Mr. George W. Jones, of Berkley, the leader of the Straightouts in Norfolk sounty, is a candidate for the Democratic nemination for Congress from the Second Diariet. That is, he would like to represent the district in the House of Representatives, though he has not made public announcement of the fact. A close triend of Mr. Jones, with whom I talked a day or two ago, said the Berkley man was ambitious and wanted to succeed Mr. Maynard.

Nothing was missing, and it is thought the thieves wwere frighttened off by the breaking of the glass. The building is oned by Mr. Fritz Sitterding.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY.

The ilechirograph, or writing telephone, of Ernst Karl Gruhn, is ingenious if not simple. The transmitter is a pencil whose lead has a little play in the metallic casing, and the pressure of writing closes a vertical motion current in the up and down strokes and a horizontal one in the forward movement. These currents control magnets in the backs of a small mirror in the receiver. This mirror is rocked by the magnets, and a pencil of light from a concentrating lens is reflected upon a strip of sensitized photographic paper. The deflected ray of light follows the movement of the writer's hand, producing a facisitized photographic paper. The deflected ray of light follows the movement of the writer's hand, producing a facisimle of the pencil's marking exact enough to serve as a signature to a check. The sensitive film is drawn through a developing bath by a little electric motor.

That dust should settle in regular figures, crystalizing, so to speak, like the snowlinke, seems rather surprising. Using plates heated 10 degrees or fiften degrees above the atmosphere, Mr. J. Russell finds that the settling dustive forms, which shape of the plate to vary from the pre-rayed to eight rayed simiform length and form a perfect pattern, while superimposed stare often precurred a microscope.

This fact he reported to the United States commissioner, and warrants were issued for the arrest of Hardin Custer, James Manning and Oliver Stewart. Manning and Custer afterward, it was charged, conspired to assault the preached and waited for him by the roadside one Sunday afternoon, pulled him from his horse and gave him a thrashing. At a term of the United States Court held here last week both me were fined $500 and sentenced to one year in the Pederal prison at Atlanta, Ga., and they were taken to Atlanta, the same night. District-Attorney Moore in summing up the evidence stated that he wanted a verdict commensurate with the crime and one that would put a stop to the necessity of preachers being forced, carry a Bible in one hand and a Winchester in the other in Floyd county. It is alleged that the assault of Saurday was committed by friends of the two moonshiner convicts.

Joseph Cohn.

Mr. Joseph Cohn died at his residence, No. 912 Capitol Street, a few minutes after midnisht. His death was not unexpected, as he had been in extremis for some time but that fact will not lessen the grief at the demise of one whose kindly to has been familiar to Richmonders for the past half century.

Mr. Cohn was born mear Posen, in Prussia, in April, 1831, and came to this country in Richmond. Six years later he married Miss Rosa Harris and she, with ten children, survives him.

The children are: Mrs. J. Schneeberger, of Baltimore: Misses Dora, Ella, Rachel and Hannah, and Messrs, Aham, Edward, Henry J., Jacob S. and Mitchell H. Cohn, the last named residing in Baltimore.

Mr. Cohn was one of the remaining few orthodox Jews of the old school, whose pleasure it was to live up to all the ritos and usages of his ancient faith. He had a cheerful dind a pleasant smile for all, and this, with his flowing beard, often caused him to be compared with the patriarchs of old.

The deceased had suffered severely for several months, and during that time no murmur passed his lips. By deeds he evidenced his unswerving faith in that God of Israel who slumbers not nor sleeps.

The funeral will be from the residence at 5 o'clock this evening, and the interment will be at the Hebrew Cemetery at the north end of Fifth Street. The family particularly requests that flowers be omitted.
